STRENGTHS - The Cougars return a pair of solid starters in senior center Aron Baynes (10.4 points/6.0 rebounds) and senior guard Taylor Rochestie (10.4 points/3.2 rebounds/4.74 assists). At 270 pounds, Baynes is a load to handle in the paint. He averaged 13.0 points and 9.0 rebounds in the NCAA Tournament. Rochestie led the league in assist/turnover ratio (2.81) and had one eight-game stretch where he posted 46 assists and six turnovers for a 7.67 assist/turnover ratio... Senior forward Daven Harmeling (5.6 points/2.2 rebounds) was a dependable sixth-man for the Cougars who will get the opportunity to crack the starting lineup this season. He hit 35 three-pointers last season and is shooting 38.8 percent from beyond the arc for his career... Junior guard Nikola Koprivica (2.5 points/1.0 rebounds) appeared in 34 games last season and at 6-6 gives coach Tony Bennett the option to go with a taller backcourt... Senior center Caleb Forrest (3.4 points/2.0 rebunds) will add depth to the interior... Sophomore forward Fabian Boeke (6-11, 230) and freshman forward DeAngelo Casto (6-8, 230) will provide plenty of size for the Cougar frontcourt. Casto was the High School Player of the Year for the State of Washington. In addition, redshirt freshmen forwards Abe Lodwick and Charlie Enquist will get thrown into the mix early... The Cougars led the league in scoring defense (56.4 ppg) for the fifth consecutive season. Only Oregon State from 1984-88 can match that feat.

CONCERNS - With only five returning letterwinners, the Cougars will need to turn to the freshmen for immediate help... Five players who were the primary factors for guiding Washington State to the NCAA Tournament the last two seasons have finished their eligibility. That means lots of points and rebounds to replace. That group accounted for better than 50 percent of the offense and 44 percent of the rebounds... Could be a tough schedule for the newcomers to handle as the docket includes NCAA Tournament participants Mississippi Valley State, Baylor and Gonzaga.

ACCORDING TO COACH TONY BENNETT - "We're going to play our toughest ever non-conference schedule. We decided to throw our young kids in the fire and see where our program is at. We're going to find out and test these guys and prepare them for Pac-10 play."

"We're losing three really good players who were a huge part of our success, we're going to miss them. It will be a challenge, but I think we're up to it. I'm excited about our recruiting class. It's good."

"Our class is very athletic and very talented, but they are freshman and I think it will take a little time. But if they develop at the rate the other guys did, good things are on the horizon."
